"The University of Wisconsin is investigating a letter that was sent to the University of Wisconsin-Madison campus that contains a reference to the '18th that is coming to a school near you,'" a statement from the school read. According to the statement, campus police responded to the scene Tuesday morning and determined the letter was not an explosive device. The statement says a hazardous materials unit was called to the scene, and officials are working with the state Department of Justice and other agencies to determine if the letter is credible and whether it has any connection to an actual threat. "As always, the safety of our students, faculty, and staff is our top priority, and we will continue to closely monitor the situation," the statement said. "Our security division and bomb squad are investigating." Chancellor Rebecca Blank said in a statement on Tuesday evening that "the safety of our students, faculty, and staff is always our top priority. As soon as we learned of the letter we immediately contacted law enforcement." Get Breaking News Delivered to Your Inbox CBS affiliate WISN-TV reported the letter came as Wisconsin's spring football game was taking place at Camp Randall Stadium.
